TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some sort of tonic. IRON enters into almost every physician's prescription for those who need building up.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
THE BEST TONIC
For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc., it has no equal, and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, restores appetite, aids digestion. It does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. Dr. G. H. BINKLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says:
"Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action exceeds all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it."
Dr. W. N. WATERS, 1219 Thirty-second Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the Tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

WHAT CHIEF ARTHUR SAYS

REGARDING THE CAUSE OF THE C., B. & Q. TROUBLE.

A Meeting of the Grievance Committees of Various Railroads Called—Probabilities of a General Strike—What the Outcome Would be—Other Labor News.

CHICAGO, March 5.—Mr. Arthur said to a press representative last night:

"It will not do to assume that the employees of the railroad company are responsible to the public for the present condition of affairs of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway. They, the employees, have a legal and moral right to place a value on their labor, and if the company cannot or will not pay it the employees are perfectly justified in refusing to work.

"No one with the least conception of justice will deny this proposition. There is no pretense that the strikers have used any means except moral suasion to prevent those who desire to work for the Burlington from following their inclination.

"Shall the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad pay the same wages for the same work that is paid by the Chicago & Alton, the Chicago & Northwestern, the Milwaukee & St. Paul, and 90 per cent. in mileage of all the railways in the United States? This is the main question, and, in fact, almost the only question, at issue between the parties to the controversy. For instance, the Burlington people pay for pulling one of their trains from Chicago to Streator and return, a distance of 120 miles, for engineers of the third grade, $2.55; second grade, $3.10; first grade, $3.65. The Chicago & Alton and other roads pay for the same service all engineers alike, $4.20, or 35 per cent. more than the Burlington.

"A fireman on the Chicago & Alton and other roads gets about the same pay as an engineer of the third grade on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy. Is there any justice in this?

"Under the grading system a man serves from three to five years as a fireman, when he is supposed to be an apprentice learning the rudiments of engineering. He then takes his place as a hostler and runs the engine from the ground, in which capacity he may serve for a year or more before he gets a switching engine for another year or two, when he may get on the road. By this time he has served an apprenticeship of from five to nine years, and still the company expects him to serve three years longer before he gets full pay.

"There is no other trade in existence that is asked or would submit to the injustice of becoming a candidate for the superannuated list before becoming a full fledged master of his trade.

"In the present controversy the engineers and firemen can afford to lose the fight, but there is no possible way in which they can recede from the demands on the question of wages except at the sacrifice of their organization."

There is little change in the general situation.

The strikers are hopeful that the Knights of Labor engineers will enter into an alliance with them if the Brotherhood men leave the Reading road.

A Meeting Called.

CHICAGO, March 5.—Chief Arthur has sent the following telegram to each chairman of the general grievance committees of the Brotherhood of Engineers and Firemen on the following lines of railroads: Chicago & Alton, Chicago & Northwestern, Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, Wabash railroad, Wabash & Western Missouri Pacific, Union Pacific, Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe and Wisconsin Central:

"DEAR SIR AND BROTHERS—You are hereby authorized and ordered to come to the city of Chicago at once and report at the headquarters. There are many important matters to consider in connection with the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy strike, and your immediate presence is imperative. Be prepared to convene your committee from here at a moment's notice. Fraternally,
"P. M. ARTHUR, G. C. E.
"F. P. SARGENT, G. M."

This looks as if a general strike will be declared on all western roads.

A reporter called upon the managers of the various railroads to learn what course they would pursue in case of a general strike. The officials were almost unanimous in saying that if the strike is extended to other roads than the Burlington, they will have no other alternative than to shut up shop and discharge all hands.

Killed by a Deputy Sheriff.

CHICAGO, March 5.—Burlington officials received a dispatch at noon from Brookfield, Mo., on the line of the Hannibal & St. Joe, stating that George Watts, one of the oldest engineers in the employ of the company, was shot dead by a deputy sheriff. It appears he entered the depot and endeavored to intimidate some of the new men on the locomotives.

He was ordered off the premises by the deputy sheriff, but refused to go, and made a significant movement toward his coat pocket. The officer then fired, killing him instantly. In the pocket of the coat was found a buldog revolver of the largest calibre. The officials of the county here express great regret at the occurrence, but under the circumstances consider it unavoidable.

Worthless Engineers.

CRESTON, Iowa, March 5.—State Commissioner Peter A. Dey, at the direction of Governor Larabee, examined engineers lately hired by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy regarding their experience and competency. Nine acting engineers were on the witness stand, and nearly all testified that they were inexperienced, and did not consider themselves competent or first-class engineers. Some acknowledged they were now running engines for the first time, and were pulling passenger trains. The investigation will be continued.

Powderly and the Lehigh Miners.

SCRANTON, Pa., March 5.—It is understood that Grand Master Workman Powderly will issue an appeal to the order to sustain the miners on strike in the Lehigh region. Master Workman Edsell has published a letter denying that the strike is about to terminate. He asserts that the men are as firm as ever, and urges the strikers who are working in the mines in this region not to be misled by the report about resumption.

The Men Win.

KANSAS CITY, March 5.—The Kansas City, Fort Scott & Gulf railway company, at a secret conference with the grievance committee, granted the following concessions in wages asked for by the men. Passenger engineers, three and a half cents a mile; all other than local freights, four cents; local freights, four and a half cents. They also agreed to abolish all classifications.

THE RECORD OF FIRES.

Milwaukee Has a Fire Pyrotechnical Display—Other Fires.

MILWAUKEE, March 5.—Shortly after midnight Friday night, the double five-story brick building occupied by J. Fernekes & Brother, 351 and 353 East Water street, was discovered to be on fire. The fire department arrived in a few minutes, but the structure was a mass of flames before they got to work. Goldsmith & Company's candy factory, which adjoins Fernekes' candy factory, soon caught fire and was soon wrapped in flames. Before 3:30 o'clock, the floors of the Fernekes' building collapsed with a thundering crash.

The stock of fireworks kept in the establishment became ignited, and above the roar of the flames could be heard the sharp detonation of giant firecrackers and bunches of smaller ones as they exploded; the hissing sound of skyrockets as they shot up in miscellaneous and confusing fashion, breaking high over head.

The fire next took hold of the mattress and feather establishment of A. W. Weigell adjoining the Goldsmith building on the north. The building was soon in ruins. Loss will reach $200,000.

Town Hall Burned.

PORT DEPOSIT, Md., March 5.—A fire destroyed the town hall here, causing a loss of $25,000. The building was owned by Hon. Jacob Torne, whose loss is $12,000; insurance, $10,000. It was occupied by John Little, restaurant, and Allen Falls, saloon, who lose everything they had. Moulder, dealer in dry goods, loses $9,000.

Several Business Blocks.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., March 5.—A destructive fire occurred at New Philadelphia, seven miles east of this city, yesterday. Briscoe's large store was totally destroyed, together with half a dozen other buildings.

MR. RANDALL'S SCHEME

Of Reducing Revenues Without Destroying Industries.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Mr. Randall says that his tariff bill will be ready for presentation on Tuesday. It will include internal taxes. He will propose that the tobacco tax and the tax on fruit spirits be abolished, and the whisky tax reduced to fifty cents a gallon.

This would make a reduction of $65,000,000, which is a far greater one than the Mills bill can hope to accomplish. The tariff revision proposed by Mr. Randall would cause a further reduction of about $30,000,000, thus making an aggregate reduction of $95,000,000 annually, based on the receipts of last year. When the two bills are thoroughly understood, the issue will plainly be whether the revenue is to be reduced as Mr. Randall proposes, or by striking down a number of important industries, as Mr. Mills proposes.

A Strange Malady.

CARROLLTON, Ky., March 5.—A very remarkable case is engaging the attention of the physicians here. The person affected is Joseph Woods, a fisherman of this place. The peculiarity of the malady is that the patient is covered with scales like those of a fish. In some places they are two or three deep, and they range in size from a twenty-five cent piece to a silver dollar, the sufferer having an exceedingly uncanny and disagreeable aspect. The scale forming has been going on for several weeks, and the body is now entirely covered. As the disease progressed it gave rise to a suspicion in the minds of many of his neighbors that it was a case of genuine leprosy, and no little excitement has been occasioned. The physicians give assurance that all fears are groundless, and say that it is a very unusual form of eczema, though it is a more serious case than ever before came within their experience, if they ever had such a case at all.

A Remarkable County.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., March 5.—Randolph county, in West Virginia, is a remarkable county in more than one feature. Its area is nearly as great as that of Rhode Island. It has the highest mountain in the state—Mount Bayard. The Wilson vein of coal is the thickest in the world. The Scott family, on Roaring creek, will outweigh any other family in the United States. Winchester, in Randolph county, is the largest hunting preserve between the Rocky mountains and the Atlantic ocean.

Hopkins to Be Sentenced Next Week.

CINCINNATI, March 5.—District Attorney Burnet said this morning that Hopkins would not be sentenced until the latter part of the week. "We are going to take his depositions in several important suits," said he, "and it would be inconvenient to take them at Columbus. After he was once sent there we would not care to keep him longer in jail here, you know." It is understood that the suits referred to are the fidelity cases.

Assassinated by an Unknown Party.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., March 5.—Robert Farley, a colored coal digger working in the St. Bernard coal mines at Earlington, while walking along the street at that place, accompanied by a friend, was fired upon by some unknown person lying in wait for him and fatally wounded in the breast. The assassin escaped in the darkness, and all efforts to track him have failed thus far. There is great excitement over the matter there.

Three Miners Killed.

BUTTE, Mont., March 5.—At Goldsmith's mine, Walkerville, three miners were killed. They were Atwater Lawrence, James Riggs and Fritz Dell. They were going to the mine to work, descending a shaft 225 feet in depth in a bucket. When within fifty feet of the bottom the wire cable broke, and the men plunged to the bottom.

ACCORDING TO DUN & CO.

ACTUAL BUSINESS IS SATISFACTORY FOR THE SEASON.

Prospects Confused and Uncertain—In Some Branches the Outlook is Promising and in Others, Dark Clouds Appear on the Horizon of Business.

NEW YORK, March 5.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: Actual business is satisfactory for the season. Prospects are confused and uncertain, in some directions promising, but in other branches of large importance decidedly cloudy. The passage by the house of the bill authorizing bond purchases was designed to remove the monetary uncertainty, an influence which affects all trade and industry. Whether the senate will pass the bill, in its present form is not yet certain. Lower prices immediately followed, however, and the decline in the stock market for the week has been about 1 per share.

The western railroad wars and strikes continue to disturb business. Because of cuts by Canadian lines, the eastern trunk roads announce a reduction of 10 per cent. on east and westbound rates, March 5, and efforts to settle the western war were defeated on Thursday by the St. Paul. Only partial revival of traffic on the Burlington road has been attained. While earnings of railroads continue to show that a large quantity of freight for the season is in motion, the rates are dropping and expenses on many lines increasing. The Pennsylvania advances wages on western lines 10 per cent.

An important case of uncertainty in many branches of trade is the movement to change the tariff. Whether the proposed changes are desirable or not, those who think them probable are for that reason moved to defer business operations. The bill submitted on Thursday would affect so many industries and branches of trade that individual opinions, favorable or unfavorable to it, must considerably influence transactions while it remains pending. It comes at a time when, for other reasons, there is hesitation in most of the branches chiefly concerned, and increases that hesitation. It is a characteristic of many trades at present that purchases and operations are, for one person or another, limited to present necessities.

In the boot and shoe trade, which is otherwise exceptionally satisfactory, there are some such indications as to women's and children's goods. In the cottons the recent signs of halting may be attributed to unusually large dealings in the past; in the sugar and numerous other trades the operations of trusts or combinations cause uncertainty. The prices of wool are steady, with Ohio double extra at thirty-two cents, and buyers have been operating with some freedom, but any advance has been resisted, and the effects of the proposal to change duties are not yet seen.

A large failure in the lumber and salt interests in Michigan, demanding the remarkable shrinkage in the demand for iron ore, indicates that the prospect in that region is not wholly unclouded. Elsewhere the iron trade is hesitating, with somewhat lower prices at Pittsburgh, while the Youngstown works resolve to close unless better rail rates enable them to meet southern competition. In the west the supply increases while the orders halt.

No unfavorable indications appear in reports of trade or of collections in any part of the country. Money is everywhere comparatively easy, though at Boston and other important points it is felt that a revival of business activity would soon be followed by some pressure. Southern trade is clearly improving, and there are signs of renewed real estate activity at some western points. The treasury had returned by banks $1,400,000 of its deposits during the week, and in all took in $4,900,000 more cash than it paid out. For the month of February the debt reduction was $7,750,000, almost entirely through increase in cash on hand, though $5,000,000 was paid for surrendered bank notes, and the bank circulation diminished $3,125,000. The volume of trade represented by payments through clearing houses is about 2-1/2 per cent. larger than last year outside of New York, but with noticeable losses at Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Cincinnati and Kansas City.

A GHOST'S WORK.

It Causes a Religious Revival in an Alabama Jail.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 5.—There is a religious revival among the prisoners confined in jail here which owes its existence to the superstition of the converts. The jail is filled with criminals of the worst class brought here by the wonderful stories which have gone out concerning the place. On the 29th of last December, George Williams, who had murdered a fellow convict, was executed in the jail yard and the gallows, with the rope hanging in the air, was left standing for future use. The prisoners, 150 in number, crowded to their cell gratings to witness the final plunge of their friend George.

A few nights later two or three inmates happened to be looking out at the midnight moon were horrified to see George again ascend the scaffold, adjust the rope to his neck and fall through the trap with realistic effect. The prisoners told the story as soon as they recovered from their fright, and the next night others witnessed the repetition of the dreadful spectacle. Since that time the ghost has been a nightly visitor to the terror of the inmates who have gone to psalm singing and praying. The jail officials are not very anxious to disabuse the minds of the believers in the ghost, as it has the effect of making them more peaceful.

The Slavery Question in Brazil.

NEW YORK, March 5.—A Rio Janeiro correspondent writes under date of February 3, and says: "The absorbing question of the day continues to be that of slavery, and it is current that the ministry, recognizing that their announced non-possumus policy has been rendered impracticable by the extraordinary progress of voluntary concessions of freedom by the planters of San Paulo, who have decided upon introducing early in the next legislative session—that is in May—a bill to abolish slavery throughout Brazil."

BASE BALL NEWS.

NEW YORK, March 5.—After wrangling over a championship schedule at the Fifth Avenue hotel till 3 o'clock in the morning, the base ball magnates of the National League finally broke the deadlock and succeeded in drafting a schedule satisfactory to all but the New York club. The committee which drafted the schedule was composed of managers Harry Wright, of the Philadelphia club, Horace Phillips, of the Pittsburgh club and Watkins, of the Detroit club.

Phillips and Watkins looked after the western end of the schedule, and left Wright to divide up the eastern dates. He gave his club the opening day in New York, opening day in Boston, Decoration Day with the Detroit club, Fourth of July at Chicago, and Labor Day both in New York and Philadelphia. President Day wanted the opening day in Boston, but the Philadelphia people would not yield, and it was finally left to the five disinterested clubs, who, after working for two hours, decided to make no change in the schedule.

Chicago at home—With Indianapolis, May 1, 2, 3, 4; August 2, 3, 4; September 24, 25, 26. THE DREADED DISEASE.

SIDNEY, O., March 5.—A family named Taylor, consisting of seven persons, living seven miles west of here, are all sick from the effects of trichina, found in raw and rare-cooked ham. The family is by no means of the kind that eats raw meat, and the manner of their acquiring the disease, if it may be so called, will serve as a pointer to others. They had a fine lot of smoked ham, and one of the girls, in slicing it for meals, had the habit of tasting the small raw pieces which fell from the knife.

Others of the family soon took up the habit, and, without knowing it, a considerable quantity of nicely smoked raw ham was daily disposed of. They all preferred it rare done when frying, and in that way they got well loaded with trichina. At all events, the entire family was taken down. The meat was examined under a microscope, and was found to be full of trichina. The meat was from healthy hogs, and had been cured for as well as possible.

Murdered His Father While Drunk.

ALPHARETTA, Ga., March 5.—Dampton Smith, a merchant of this place, turned his son, Bud Smith, out of his store. Wednesday, the son went into his father's store and turned to the old man, who sat talking to Sheriff Teasley, and answered a remark addressed to him by his father with a fatal shot from his gun. The murderer was drunk, and when he sobered up claimed not to know what he had done. While his father's funeral was taking place the fratricide cursed and begged for a knife to kill himself. He is being watched to prevent him from suiciding.

Suicided After a Whipping.

CHICAGO, March 5.—Emma Lange, a sixteen-year-old girl, committed suicide Friday by taking poison. Thursday night the girl had staid out late with objectionable company and her father whipped her. This is the only reason known for her self-destruction as she refused to talk after taking the poison further than to say that she wished to die.

Hundreds of Pricked Arms.

CHICAGO, March 5.—Quite a scare has been created at the city Bridewell, where 950 prisoners are confined, over the discovery of a case of smallpox. The victim is a man who came here from the east a few days ago and was sent out for vagrancy. He was promptly removed to the pest house, and yesterday 600 of the prisoners were vaccinated.

Liquor Men Have the Blues.

DETROIT, March 5.—The supreme court of this state has declared the new state liquor law in the main constitutional. The decision is a terrible disappointment to the liquor men, and the temperance people are elated.

A Greaser Gibbeted.

PRESBOTT, Ariz., March 5.—Martin Duran, a Mexican, was hanged in the jail yard here for the murder of his mistress at Flagstaff, Ariz. He was sentenced to be hanged on January 18 last, but was respited.

Carlisle on the Mills Tariff Bill.

The tariff is the political problem of the day, and it will be the main question at issue in the next Presidential campaign. The two great parties have declared that a reform and a revision is needed. The Democrats demand it in the interest of the people of the country, and the Republicans say that the present system is piling up too much money in the treasury, and admit that something should be done to prevent the increase of the surplus, to lessen the revenues of the Government. But when it comes to a plan of correcting the present abuses the two parties are widely at issue. Democrats demand that the taxes should be taken off the necessities of life first; the Republicans say abolish the internal revenue. The Democrats demand cheap food and cheap clothing for the people; the Republicans say give them cheap whisky and cheap tobacco. Which will the people take?

In furtherance of what they believe should be done with this great question the Democrats have prepared and introduced in Congress the Mills Tariff bill. This bill will, it is believed, effect a reduction of about $55,000,000 in the present revenues of the Government, and is a conservative measure, in as much as the Republicans think the reduction should amount to about $80,000,000. Of course, Republicans are not in favor of this bill. They know full well that their only hope of success in the next campaign is to prevent the Democrats from passing any tariff bill. They will fight the Mills bill or any other measure prepared by Democrats. But that is expected.

Speaker Carlisle has been interviewed on this bill by an Enquirer correspondent. His views of the bill are given in the following:

"It is a very conservative measure, and ought to be passed. The existing financial and industrial situation would have justified a much more radical measure in some respects, but there are always so many differences of opinion about details and so much apprehension about the effects of proposed changes in the rates of duty that it is impossible to do exactly what ought to be done."

"You think, then, the measure is a fair one?"

"Yes, this bill has been prepared with great care, and I know that it has been the purpose of its framers to deal fairly and liberally with any interest affected by it. There has been no feeling of hostility to the capital or labor employed in manufacturing industries, and the bill if passed, will not hurt them."

"In what way will it help capital and labor?"

"Wool, flax, hemp, jute, dye-stuffs and many other raw materials are placed upon the free list, and this will largely reduce the cost of production without reducing the wages of labor. The consumer will thus be enabled to get cheaper goods while the manufacturer will realize ample profits, and the laborer will continue to receive the same or higher wages."

"What will be done with the bill by Congress?"

"I think the bill will pass substantially as reported."

"What if it is defeated?"

"The Democratic party will then appeal to the people on this question at the next election, and a Congress will be chosen that will reduce the revenue much more than is now proposed."

A KENTUCKIAN in Kansas wrote back to the editor of his old county paper, saying: "Offer a prize for the biggest fool in the country, and I will try and get there in time to claim it."

GOVERNOR BUCKNER has issued a proclamation which withdraws and revokes from and after the 10th of this month all rewards made prior to January 1, 1887, for the apprehension of felons.

THE liquor question is causing as much uneasiness in some sections as the tariff. The Covington Commonwealth thinks a carefully prepared license law strictly enforced is the best solution of the problem.

KENTUCKY PROHIBITIONISTS will hold a State convention Thursday, April 12th, to select delegates to the National convention, which will assemble at Indianapolis on the 6th of June. The State convention will be held at Louisville.

WEST VIRGINIA will not get her Hatfield outlaws, for a while yet, at least. Judge Barr decided at Louisville Saturday that the prisoners are properly within the custody and jurisdiction of Kentucky and remanded the accused to the jail of Pike County to answer for their crimes.

LAW-MAKERS AT FRANKFORT.

Items of Interest Gleaned From the Proceedings of the Legislature—Notes.

The bill to charter the Cottageville and Rectorville Turnpike Road Company has been passed.

Representative Newman, of Campbell County, has reported a bill fixing the liability of railroads to the owners of stock killed and injured. It provides that the roads shall pay full value unless the owners contribute to the killing or injury. If, however, the railroads fence their tracks four and one-half feet high, and shall keep same in good repair with good cattle guards at crossings, they are exempted from liability except where the killing or injury could have been avoided by ordinary care.

A bill that has caused considerable discussion is one which requires the employer of a contractor to hold a percentage of the money due the latter for thirty days after the completion of the building, provided, however, the sub-contractors or workmen give notice within thirty days before completion. This bill was copied from the Ohio law and is for the protection of the workmen. It is now pending in the House.

Representative Hillis offered a bill to authorize the Lewis Circuit Court to make new indexes direct and reverse to suits determined and off the docket in his office.

The Judiciary Committee Friday reported Mr. Reed's bill in the House to give all Commonwealth's Attorneys a salary, instead of fees. The bill calls for a salary $2,000 for all save the Commonwealth's Attorney of Jefferson County. This bill, it was stated, was the one agreed upon at a meeting of Commonwealth's Attorneys.

The Frankfort Capital says: "Senator Worthington's facts Thursday regarding reduced assessments in many counties, were both startling and interesting. They were facts incontrovertible, having been furnished by the Auditor in reply to inquiry. Without some lodgment of power somewhere to prevent a headlong rush for reduced assessments, there is likely to be serious trouble with the revenues of the State. The Senate is fully equal to the task which confronts it, and its action will conform to the demands of the occasion."

Representative Gooding has presented a bill to amend the charter of the City of Maysville.

Senator Worthington has offered a bill entitled "An act to empower the Court of Claims of Mason County to allow fees to Justices in certain cases."

Mr. Bingham, of Adair, introduced a bill which proposes to allow Circuit Clerks and Clerks of Criminal Courts in this Commonwealth for their services in felony cases, one-half the fees which they are now entitled to by law for similar services in civil cases, to be paid out of the State Treasury.

Mr. Needham has introduced a bill making it a misdemeanor for any one to haul a load exceeding 5,000 pounds over any turnpike road in this State in a wagon of a narrow tire, or a load of over 8,000 pounds in a wagon having a broad tire.

Stock and Crops.

T. C. Jefferson, of Lexington, is the party who recently bought Belle Boy from Senator Stockbridge, for $35,000.

Many of our farmers are short of feed, and the weather the past week has been very severe on stock.—Mt. Olivet Democrat.

We have heard some of our farmers predict that the present is going to be a good fruit year, and one of them has told us there will be an abundance of peaches.—Paris Kentuckian.

A disease has broken out among sheep in the western portion of Bourbon County which is more fatal than scab. They are affected in the head, and lay around for several days and then die.

The Mercer Grain and Coal Co., of Harrodsburg, sold wheat to southern parties to the amount of $54,000, and still have on hand 200,000 bushels, more than Cincinnati and Louisville combined.

In Cincinnati the record of the pork-packing season from November 1st to March 1st, 1887-'88, says 309,588 hogs were killed and cured, as against 332,401 for the same period last year. This is a loss of 22,813.

"Beautiful Snow."

The snow storm which set in last evening has proved the heaviest of the season. It is about six inches deep and the "feathery flakes" are still falling fast. The merry sleighbells are heard in the land and "winter still lingers in the lap of spring."

WILL BLACKERBY, a fifteen-year-old son of Frank Blackerby, at Berlin, Bracken County, was before County Judge Bradford, at Augusta, Friday, charged with attempting rape upon Miss Freddie Sharp, also of that place. The trial resulted in Blackerby's acquittal, on the plea that he did not have sense enough to know right from wrong.

Pithy Points From Washington.

The business which wrecks homes and makes untold misery and sorrow should be frowned upon by all good people.

The business which dishonors civilization and detracts from morality and religion is one that all good men should oppose.

The business which takes up young men and makes them into drunkards is one that cannot be judged too harshly.

The business that can show no good side, but is only evil and that continually should not have the warrant of law one minute for its continuance.

The business that panders to everything that is vicious and unruly in men should be shunned as one would a deadly pestilence.

Ladies' Styles.

(New York World.)

A fashion of last summer and autumn is likely to be revived this season, that of wearing tailor-made skirts of English cheviot, figured in small, neat plaids, with a bodice of a plain color. A pretty one has skirts of cheviot, a dull white and with a small reddish-brown plaid upon it. This is made simply and with tailor stitchings. The perfectly plain bodice is of brown cheviot, its finish also consisting merely of tailor stitchings. With these dresses are worn English walking hats of brown felt, trimmed only with a broad moire ribbon twisted about it and tied in a big bow a little to one side of the front. These dresses make excellent morning wear for the street.

As You Go West.

(Bardette.)

Prosperity of New York Magazine.

The rivalry between the magazines of New York is very great at present. Their market is the whole country. Their revenues increase with the growth of intelligence. As their success depends on the quality and attractiveness of their contents, there is intellectual as well as business rivalry, and the extent to which this is carried may be seen in the flamboyant promises of the advertisements which they are issuing at this season of the year. Famous names are heralded abroad by the publishers and moving or taking themes or fascinating romances or charming illustrations are put in competition with others of the kind until one is almost bewildered by the spectacle. All this furnishes opportunity for competent writers in every field of letters, and it is certain that never before were the openings so great for such writers in our country. Young literary aspirants are always assuring each other that there is no chance for genius nowadays, but they can learn in the office of every magazine that the competition to secure "genius" is actively pursued the year round.

The influence of the New York magazines upon the literary and artistic culture of the country is very great, and it is a matter of pride that the character of all of them makes them worthy of their fortunes.—John Swinton in Philadelphia Press.

THE C. & O. REORGANIZATION.

Huntington Steps Down and Out and M. E. Ingalls Elected President—What Led to the Change.

A New York special to the Cincinnati Enquirer last Friday says: Late this afternoon C. P. Huntington stepped down and out from the Presidency of the Chesapeake and Ohio road and M. E. Ingalls, of Cincinnati, stepped up and in, and with the elections which are to come will hold the office for five years, this being part of the agreed plan. Mr. Huntington will never get back. The road is now in the hands of a Receiver, but those who recall the successful financial history of the Big Four need not be told that the Receiver will not hold the office very long. Mr. Huntington began to invest in this road about twenty years ago. He has been prominently identified with it, and during the whole period of his management, it is claimed, he has failed to give satisfaction to those who had invested in it expecting to get good returns for their money. By the absorption of other properties it has been saddled with a heavy debt, under which it has staggered almost hopelessly. Last year Mr. Huntington proposed a plan of reorganization to the security holders, but it met with such hearty dislike and opposition that he had the road thrown into the hands of one of his Vice Presidents as Receiver. Mr. Huntington said to-night: "I haven't lessened my interest and don't expect to. I have six times the interest of any stockholder in the road."

"This is a surrender of the road to the Drexel-Morgan syndicate, is it not?" "No, this is a voting trust. The reorganization will not take place for some time yet. It is nearly a year off yet. I don't propose to lessen my holding, and my money remains in the road."

"Has there been any dissatisfaction among the stockholders about the termination of the road being kept at Newport News instead of being extended to Baltimore?"

Mr. Huntington smiled: "Newport News is one hundred and sixty-seven miles nearer the ocean; the harbor is never frozen, and it is easier of access than Baltimore. Of course it is not much of a place for passengers, but it is a good place for shipping freight."

Mr. John Castree, who for many years has been one of the directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio, but who resigned soon after the annual meeting because of his dissatisfaction with the Huntington management, said: "It is a good thing for the road that Huntington is not in the new syndicate. I'm satisfied with the Drexel-Morgan syndicate, and I think the road will be benefited."

The Late John LaRue, Sr.

The death of Mr. John LaRue, Sr., was noticed a few days ago. He had finished moving to his new home near Shawan, Ky., the day on which he died. He reached the farm at 5 o'clock in the evening, took a walk over the place, and on returning to the house two hours afterward, dropped dead. Heart disease is attributed as the cause.

He leaves a wife and seven children, four sons and three daughters, only one of whom is married, Mrs. George H. Preston, of Covington. Mr. LaRue was a native of this county where he long resided, as a merchant, at Lewisburg. For ten years he and his family kept the LaRue House, at Blue Lick Springs, and made many warm friends, who deeply sympathize with them. They were also merchants and dealers in tobacco, and being very fortunate in the past year, paid $41,000 for the splendid Bowen estate in Bourbon County.

The funeral took place Friday at Millersburg, after which the remains were interred in the cemetery at that place.

A Splendid Entertainment.

Manager Fennessy seems to have secured a series of the best variety shows before the public, and the Mignani Siegrist Company, which opened at the People's yesterday afternoon, was no less admirable an organization than its predecessors. The bill opened with the acrobatic song and dance team, Connors and Collins, in their new specialty. "The Mashers, who were followed by Toto Siegrist who is without a peer as a tumbler and on the slack wire. Next came Polly McDonald, who captivated all by her clever singing and dancing. Leonard and Flynn, those inimitable exponents of Irish comedy, were the next attraction and were succeeded by Valjean, the European novelty star, in a marvellous act of equivoque and juggling. John A. Coleman, the champion clog dancer, received a hearty reception; his Lancashire clog dancing was remarkably fine. The world-famed Siegrist Brothers now appeared, and it is safe to say that no team of acrobats before the public can equal them to-day. The inimitable Billy Carter followed and kept the house in roars of laughter for a good fifteen minutes. The first part closed with the appearance of the Mignani Family, the original Parisian street pavers, in their clever act, and the clever farce "Unneighborly Tradesman," closed an entertainment which is one of great merit throughout and should play to immense business.—Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, Nov. 15, '87.

At opera house next Wednesday and Thursday nights. See advertisement elsewhere for prices of admission.

Mr. W. N. HOEFELICH, who has had charge of the St. Charles Hotel for some time, retires this week and will be succeeded by Mr. D. R. Lindsay, who lately moved to this city from near Lewisburg. Mr. Hal C. Curran will retain his position as clerk.

THE entertainment at Mitchell Chapel Friday and Saturday night for the benefit of that church was a success. A large crowd was present each evening and the net receipts, we understand, amounted to about $54. The ladies who had it in charge are to be congratulated upon their successful work in the cause.

MISS SABINA LYNCH, daughter of Mr. Thomas Lynch, died last evening at five o'clock at the home of her mother on Vine street, at the age of about nineteen years. She had been ill about ten days, with pneumonia. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at nine o'clock at St. Patrick's Church, after which the remains will be buried in the cemetery at Washington.

THE Forty Hours Devotion commenced at St. Patrick's Church this morning. The order of exercises during this devotion will be as follows: High Mass each morning at 9 o'clock, after which the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for the adoration of the faithful during the day until 7:30 p. m., when the services for the day will be closed with the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

HON. G. D. BURGESS, of Linn, Mo., a native of this county, is a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court of that State. He was Judge of the Eleventh circuit in that State for thirteen years, despite the fact that the circuit has 1,000 Republican majority. He is an able lawyer and jurist, and lived in Paris in 1856. His wife is a sister of Mrs. Charley Redmon and Mrs. Samuel Williams, of Bourbon County.

HAL W. DIMMITT, son of Dr. Dimmitt, of Germantown, and a grandson of Dr. A. H. Wall, of this city, passed a successful examination at the Ohio Medical College of Cincinnati last week, and is one of a class of seventy who will graduate from that institution next Wednesday. He passed through town Saturday on his way home to spend a few days, and was accompanied by his friend Dr. F. B. Seymour, of Columbus, Texas.

BEEN AT IT FOR YEARS.

ENGLAND CONSTANTLY NIBBLING VENEZUELAN TERRITORY.

British Press Comments—They Ridicule Our Navy, and Say We Dare Not Interfere—The Pope's Coronation Anniversary—Bulgarian Notes—European News.

LONDON, March 5.—The repeated protests of the Venezuelan government against the steady encroachments made on its frontier by the queen's subjects from British Guiana, although couched in the most respectful, not to say humble, terms, appear to have only the effect of irritating those English journals and people who can be induced to notice the subject at all.

For years there has been a constant nibbling at the Venezuelan border, and portion after portion of territory has been annexed in the most matter of course manner. There is even a sort of feeling, understood at least, if not expressed, that very likely the inhabitants of the territory absorbed, are thankful to be taken under the shield of English protection, thereby exchanging their status and subjects of a weak and semi-barbarous power for the inestimable privilege of British citizenship, and acquiring the protection of a powerful and civilized nation of modern times.

If the stories of the richness of the gold fields on the debatable lands should prove to be correct they can certainly be better developed by British enterprise and capital than by the primitive methods of the Venezuelan. As for the right of the matter, it is known to every one that the defining lines have always been uncertainly traced, and in matters of doubt the English government must protect its interests. The foregoing is the complacent view entertained here, and the proposition of arbitrament is considered as derogatory to the dignity of a nation so assured of the justice of its position.

The press comments on the subject indicate that not only would arbitration in the present case be objectionable on principle, but any suggestion looking to the selection of the United States as the adjudicating power would be flatly rejected. Either justly or unjustly, it is considered that a nation which has promulgated the Monroe doctrine could not view the delicate point of difference impartially, and a mixed commission would prevent almost equally un- superior difficulties.

The future policy of England towards Venezuela may be imagined from her past course. The latter country dare not provoke hostilities, and "What," asks the press, "could the United States do in her behalf, even if she were willing to muddle in any quarrel so remote from her soil? England, of course, would not break off her friendly relations with the great republic for any slight cause, but a nation that has no navy must not make itself ridiculous by hallow- bluster, and what retaliatory measures could the United States devise in case her protests were unheeded?"

England Don't Want Him.

LONDON, March 5.—In an interview with Baron De Staal, of Russia, Lord Salisbury, of England, said he would not consent to Ferdinand's deposition until his successor has been determined, and that the Prince of Mingrelia would not be acceptable to England.

The Prince of Mingrelia's family name is Dadian, and the unimportant Georgian principality called Mingrelia, bordering on Circassian and the Black sea, was sold under pressure by Prince David Dadian, father of Russia's candidate for the Bulgarian throne, to the czar for about $750,000. The present Prince Nicholas is a cultured young gentleman, a colonel in the Russian army, and an aid-de-camp to the czar. He is married to Marie, daughter of the Russian general and minister, Count Adelsburg.

The dispatch would imply that the czar is again offering his nephew as a candidate for the Bulgarian throne.

The Pope Laments His Position.

ROME, March 5.—Yesterday was observed as the anniversary of the coronation of the pope. His holiness received the congratulation of the sacred college, Cardinal Sacconi, the dean of the college, delivering an address. The pope replied in an animated speech. He lamented more than ever his position, which, he said, was unbearable. The Catholic world must be aware of the situation. No arrangement with the government was possible until the independence of the papacy was restored.

Russia Grows More Emphatic.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 5.—The Russian government has sent the porte a second and more decided note, requesting them to intimate that Prince Ferdinand's position in Bulgaria is illegal. It is reported that Germany supports Russia's action in the matter. The Moscow Gazette, the government organ, says that Turkey will declare Prince Ferdinand an usurper in Bulgaria, and will interfere with a military force to establish a status there in accordance with the Berlin treaty, either on receiving a mandate from all the powers or carte-blanche from Russia.

The Status of the Crown Prince.

LONDON, March 5.—The cessation of the daily bulletins, and the strict prohibition of all authentic information regarding the condition of the crown prince has caused intense excitement in Berlin, and no little indignation.

The crown prince looks many years older than when he left Berlin. His beard is white, and he has become very thin. His handwriting, however, is as firm and clear as ever. He has written his will, and a political testament for his son, Prince William.

King John in Council.

ROME, March 5.—Gen. San Marzano, commander of the Italian forces, telegraphs from Massowah that King John, of Abyssinia, has arrived at Asmara, where he will hold a council with the chiefs and decide upon his future course.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 5.—Plans have been projected for an interstate revival, assembly and faith cure meeting to be held at Williams' grove, to continue all the month of June. The projectors propose to have a reunion of evangelists, faith cure workers and believers of all denominations from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Ohio and other states where the faith cure has obtained a foothold, and to hold daily meetings in the great hall there, under the auspices of Mrs. Woodworth and other prominent people. It is also proposed to try to work the faith cure in public and to ask physicians and disbelievers to be present in order to make public and practical test of the theory.
